ELECTION!

Republicans Capture Most of the Offices.

Republicans Elect 11 and Democrats 5 Officers.

Board of Supervisors Democratic.

The election in this city Monday resulted very favorably to the Republicans. The contest was almost entirely on local issues, politics entering but little into the discussion. It was a contest of men rather than party. It was conceded from the start that the Republican nominees for clerk and supervisor at large would be elected and the majority were large. For treasurer the result was in doubt until every vote was counted and it was then found that Mr. Kohler was re-elected by 15 votes. The contest for mayor resulted in the choice of E. A. Todd by 69 votes over Julius Frieske.

REPUBLICAN—For mayor, Julius Frieske; clerk, Frank W. Smith; treasurer, F. Edwin Kohler; supervisor at large, Morris Osburn; school inspector, Arthur M. Hume; school inspector, (to fill vacancy,) Henry B. Dewey; directors of the poor, Arza L. Fowler, William R. Smith; Supervisor, 1st district, Campbell C. Gregory; 2nd dist., James H. Laverock; constable, 1st dist., John F. Mabin; 2nd dist., Benjamin S. Retan; alderman, 1st ward, Jas. Osburn; 2nd ward, Oscar Wells; 3rd ward, Geo. F. Robinson; 4th ward, Joseph H. Robbins.

DEMOCRATIC—For mayor, Edwin A. Todd; clerk, Charles J. Patterson; treasurer, Daniel L. Murphy; supervisor at large, Andrew J. Patterson; school inspector, Jerome E. Turner; superintendents of the poor, William Weidman, William Fletcher; supervisor 1st district, Thomas J. Horsman; 2nd dist., Charles A. Baldwin; constable, 1st district, Marcus L. Burch; 2nd dist., Hiram Axford; alderman, 1st ward, Dwight C. Clapp; 2nd ward, James A. Beebe; 3rd ward, Morris Holmes; 4th ward John J. Mackey.

PROHIBITION—For Mayor, Henry W. Parker; clerk, Henry H. Daniels; treasurer, Daniel M. Christian; supervisor at large, Maurice J. Roberts; directors of the poor, Jacob B. Perry, Geo. W. Wren; school inspector, Ella May Sawyer; supervisor 1st dist., T. P. Hackleman; supervisor 2nd dist., M. H. Harvey; Knapp; constable, 1st district, Oscar Bailey; 2d district, John Carr, Jr.; alderman, 1st ward, John Goodwin; 2nd ward, E. L. Brewer; 3rd ward, F. C. Finch; 4th ward, B. S. Knapp.

4th ward: Robbins 253; Mackey 167; Knapp 5. Robbins' majority, 86.

On the question of raising the rate of interest on the fifteen hundred dollars of water works bonds to not exceed five per cent, the vote was yes 517, no 46.

CORUNNA.

The result of the election in Corunna was mixed. The contest was warm for nearly all the offices and considerable splitting was done, party lines not being at all closely drawn. On the city ticket the democrats elected mayor, the republicans treasurer and both constables. In the first ward the democratic nominee for supervisor was endorsed by the republicans. Both the democratic nominees for aldermen were elected in the first. In the 2d ward democrats elected supervisor, republicans alderman. In the 3d ward Jas. M. Goodell for supervisor was on both tickets, republicans elected alderman. Board will stand four republican, two democrats.

The following is the vote cast for each candidate, republican, democratic and prohibition, in order named:

Waugh (also on the republican ticket) 258; constables: Charles Clyne, 106; Clayton Thomas 105; H. Parks 14; Hardy 104; Harrison Burgee (also on republican ticket) 258.

BURNS.

This town started off with a straight prohibition ticket, but a middle arose, and a correspondent writes that it was committed to the flames. There was a fusion of republicans, patrons of industry and prohibitionists, and the result was, the straight democrat and greenback ticket came off with a complete victory as follows: Supervisor, Austin E. Richards, 162; clerk, Bowman S. Williams, 170; treasurer, Wm. Rowley, 203; justice, full term, John E. Martenus, 160; justice to fill vacancy, Jerry Joslyn, 144; highway commissioner, Wm. Lauring, 142; drain commissioner, Fred Smith 126; school inspector, Mary Anderson, 113; board of review one year, Samuel W. Arthur, 144; for two years, Thompson H. Reeves, 132; constables, Thomas McLaughlin, Wm. Vaughan, George W. Badger, Charles L. Fox, majorities about as above.

CALEDONIA.

Elected a Farmers' and Laborers' ticket except as noted below: Supervisor, Duane C. Cooper (rep.) one majority; clerk, George O. Brands, 3; treasurer, Wm. D. Brands, 18; highway commissioner, John Jenkins, 23; justice, Schuyler Ferris, 23; school inspector, Sappnel M. Kerby (rep.) 48; drain commissioner, Charles McNamara, 4; board of review, 1 year, Fred Hintze, 16; 2 years, Isaac N. Moss, 20; constables, M. Benjamin Palmer, 16; Chancey S. Wallace, 16; Peter Bartell, 15.

FAIRFIELD.

Elected democrats: Supervisor, Aymer E. Shannon; treasurer, Charles B. Munroe; highway commissioner, Gilbe Sawyer; drain commissioner, Wm. Haylock; board of review 2 years, Park Scott; republicans: clerk, Cassius Loyne; justice full term, Clark Cushman; school inspector, Geo. W. Pearce; constables, B. W. Gates, Geo. Gage, Chas. Cushman, Nehemiah Austin.

HAZLETON.

Three tickets in the field, republican, union, prohibition. The successful ones were: supervisor, William E. Jacobs (republican and union) 266; clerk, Aaron Hansen (union) 20; treasurer, John H. Conly (union) 37; justice, James Fee (union and prohibition) 4; highway commissioner, Harvey J. Patterson (rep.) 65; drain commissioner, Harvey Boyce (rep. and union) 268; member board of review, one year, Robert Easton (union and rep.) 204; one year, Francis F. Brewer (union) 29; school inspector, Robert Easton (union) 38; constables, John Sutton (union and rep.) 260; Robert Moore (union) 49; Henry Amidon (union) 37; Donald Carmichael (union) 23.

MIDDLEBURY.

The election was exciting with two tickets in the field, republicans and patrons of industry. The former ticket was successful, electing all its nominees by majorities as follows: Supervisor, David B. Green 16; clerk, George A. Hutton 15; treasurer, James R. VanDyne 6; school inspector, Wilbur L. Howard 19; highway commissioner, William C. Stiff 19; justice of the peace, Silas B. Southworth 25; justice to fill vacancy, Harvey A. Whitaker 22; member board of review, two years, William A. Merrill 22; one year, Edgar G. Crosswell 26.

constables: Henry S. Hall 30; John E. Welter 21; James Price 21; George Harvey 21.

NEW HAVEN.

Three tickets, republican, democratic and prohibition, were nominated. The result favored the democrats. Supervisor, John Chamberlain; clerk, Chas. Steed; treasurer, Francis H. Morris (pro.); justice, Abram Callard; members board of review, G. E. Hurd, Daniel Streeter; school inspector, David Jocelyn; highway commissioner, David Whitright; drain commissioner, Thos. Goodwell (pro.).

OWOSSO TOWNSHIP.

There were three tickets in the field: Republican, democratic and peoples'—the latter being the P. of I. ticket. The democrats endorsed the nominees on the peoples' ticket for supervisor, treasurer and some of the minor offices. The republican nominees were all elected but one constable, Supervisor, Elihu W. Mason 45; clerk, Francis M. Shepard 61; treasurer, Frank H. Rush 10; highway commissioner, Ellis T. Wilbur 37; justice of the peace, Leonard S. Bowles 56; school inspector, Charles A. Doane 42; member board of review, one year, John W. Dewey 47; two years, Earl S. Hall 66; drain commissioner, Daniel J. Babcock 87; constables, Geo. Rush 52; Silas Bailey 55, George Leonard, 23; Jedediah E. Van Haten 45.

PERRY.

Elects the entire republican ticket except drain commissioner. The following were elected by pluralities ranging from 13 to 91: Supervisor, Charles T. Wing; clerk, Alton O. McEwen; treasurer, Henry O. Watkins; highway commissioner, James Bridger; school inspector, Loren C. Watkins; justices, John A. Morrice, Quincy L. Taylor; drain commissioner, Edward Redmond; constables, Israel Atkins, Perry Treadway, Thomas Johnston, Lyman Bennett; board of review, Charles H. Calkins, Wm. G. Morrice, A. F. Bott was elected justice for full term.

RUSH.

Elects the entire democratic ticket except constables, which are republican: Supervisor, John Henderson, 7; clerk, James K. Allen, 10; treasurer, Thomas Carmody, 19; justice of the peace, Chas. Freeman, 12; board of review 1 year, James A. Hayt, 62; 2 years, Ebenezer P. Bliss, 53; drain commissioner, Martin W. Willoughby, 18; highway commissioner, Pierre Corcoran, 33; school inspector, James Lynch, 44; constables, Hiram Peck, Arnold Johnson, Lewis Ball, Wm. Ross, by 5 to 7 majorities.

SHIAWASSEE.

Three tickets in the field, republican, democrat and prohibition. All the successful ones were republicans except clerk and highway commissioner. Supervisor, Rudolph Colby; clerk, Fred W. Chandler; treasurer, Orson Suggen; justice of the peace, Peter C. Carruthers; highway commissioner, Myron Wilcox; drain commissioner, Edward W. Sheldon; school inspector, Hudson Sheldon; board of review, Amos Parmenter, 2 years; Lorin C. Shelby, 1 year, constables, William W. Hunt, Lewis Grant, George Jackson.

SCIOTA.

The election passed off quietly with two tickets in the field—People's and Union. The vote on supervisor was a tie between Wm. H. Rowley on the people's ticket and Edson B. Putnam on the union ticket. Putnam won the place by lot. With the exception of justice and one constable the balance of the officers were elected on the people's ticket. The other winners were: clerk, Abner Crane; treasurer, W. J. Tillotson; justice, Wm. Nixon and Albert Nixon; highway commissioner, E. T. Putnam; board of review, S. N. Pierce and James Lawler.

Later reports are that the decision on supervisor will be contested.

VENICE.

Gives a People's ticket a heavy majority in a total vote of 279, the prohibition vote ranging from 46 to 54. Supervisor, Hiram Johnson, 200; board of review, 1 year, Henry Lytle, 188; 2 years, George Chavez, 185; clerk, Wm. Stewart, 187; treasurer, Hiram Reed, 185; justices, full term, Charles W. Allison, 182; to fill vacancy, Rolla Turk, 237; highway commissioner, Calvin M. Craig, 173; drain commissioner, Edward Leonard, 181; school inspector, John A. Lawcock, 176; constables: Frank Kenyon, Simon Anthony, Asa Caldwell, Jerome B. Frazier.

VERNON.

Elected the entire democratic ticket except drain commissioner and one constable by majorities ranging from 24 to 170. Supervisor, Harry S
